

Summary

BEATA LUDWICZAK (Eugeniusz Geppert Academy of Art and Design in Wrocław) / New old perspectives of Bauhaus. A review of permanent exhibitions in the new museums in Weimar and Dessau-Roßlau

The text is a review of permanent exhibitions, opened in 2019 in two new Bauhaus museums, in Weimar and Dessau-Roßlau, built on the occasion of the 100th anniversary of the creation of the German art and design school. The buildings are examples of contemporary museum architecture, while the exhibitions are extensive presentations of the school's heritage, although they do not adequately refer to the most recent research into the feminist perspective.
