

Summary

EWA WYLEZEK-TARGOSZ (University of Silesia) / Discovering America

This review article aims to present the main ideas presented in Ameryka (America) by Filip Lipinski. The article discusses individual chapters of Lipinski's work and places them, at times, in a broader socio-cultural context. The reviewer repeatedly enters into a polemic with the author, which leads to an even more comprehensive revision of the American myth.
